

ESL:

Ananth Dhanwantri: Chairperson

Dhanwantri Ananth is a practicing Advocate with a strong presence in the courts of Hyderabad and Bangalore, He brings to the table not just legal precision but unmatched oratory backed by experience. Having participated in over 100 Model United Nations conferences, he is a seasoned delegate, chairperson, and a mentor. Off the podium and beyond the courtroom, he's a die-hard Chelsea FC fan, bringing the same passion and loyalty to the MUN circuit that he shows for the Blues on matchdays.

Arnav Kaul – Vice - Chairperson

Arnav is a DP2 student pursuing Physics, Math, Economics, and Chemistry at the higher level. A passionate MUNner, having most recently served as Co-Secretary General at CHIRECMUN, Arnav has over 10 MUNs under his belt, in all available capacities. Beyond MUNs, Arnav's interests range from Formula 1 to ancient history. Arnav hopes to make this experience a memorable one for all delegates.

Rikith Jamalpuri: Rapporteur

Rikith is a driven 12th grader studying economics at Chirec. A huge football fan, he's eagerly awaiting the day Man United escapes mid-table hell. He's the type of person who won't stop talking no matter what, not even in math class when he's been told off twice. When he's not holding you hostage in conversation, you can catch him trying to master his brownies or playing cricket with his friends. He's an avid MUN enthusiast, always trying to scalp time just so he can attend one more conference. His electric personality and fiery debating style bring a unique flair to each conference he attends. Rikith is eagerly awaiting this year's JMUN and hopes to make this committee memorable through his silly humour and controversial takes.

UNICEF

Aanya jain: Chairperson

Aanya Jain or better known as “the delegate of Iran ” is currently pursuing humanitarian subjects for her A levels, as an aspiring lawyer. Over the last two years in the circuit, Aanya has won multiple awards and served as an executive board member on numerous occasions. Outside of MUNs, Aanya is often indulging herself in literature or cheering for red bull as they dominate yet another F1 season. Aanya looks forward to serving you as your chairperson and giving you a memorable experience!

Sanjay Rajkumar:Co Vice - Chairperson

Sanjaay Rajkumar is a 12th-grade student with a passion for game development and a sharp eye for strategy—whether it's on a chessboard, the basketball court, or while playing Madden with his brother. With several years of MUN experience under his belt, Sanjaay thrives in high-pressure, research-driven environments. Known for his quick wit and endless energy, he's always ready to spark engaging discussions and keep the room alive. As the Co-Vice Chair of the UNICEF committee, Sanjaay is excited to bring that same enthusiasm to the table—guiding debate, encouraging fresh perspectives, and making sure delegates have an unforgettable experience.

Aanya Jaidka: Co Vice - Chairperson:

Aanya is a 12th grader at CHIREC hoping to pursue economics and policy making. From her first conference in 2019, she's seen MUNs from every angle — as a delegate, OC member and even Secretary General — and is excited to be serving as the Vice Chair for UNICEF this year. Apart from being a national level table tennis player, Aanya enjoys spending her leisure time binge watching Netflix- anything from a documentary to a sitcom, reading or deep in thought about her next snack.

Aanya's looking forward to meeting all the delegates and wishes them the best of luck!

DISEC:

Rajas Agarwal: Chairperson

Rajas Agarwal is a highly experienced MUN participant with a well-rounded portfolio encompassing delegate, Executive Board, and Secretariat roles. Over the years, he has represented a diverse range of countries across multiple committees, engaging in complex diplomatic negotiations and policy debates at both national and institutional levels. His Executive Board roles have included serving as Chairperson, Vice Chair, and Rapporteur across a range of specialized and general assemblies, reflecting his deep understanding of parliamentary procedure and issue-based diplomacy. Within the Secretariat, he has taken on critical leadership roles such as Deputy Secretary-General, Charge D’Affaires, and Secretary-General, contributing significantly to the planning, training, and execution of multiple MUN conferences. Additionally, his role as Deputy Head Boy of his institution showcases his leadership abilities beyond the MUN circuit, cementing his reputation as a committed and capable student diplomat.

Varun Lingamallu: Vice-Chairperson

Varun Lingamallu is an IBDP Year 1 student at The Gaudium School, pursuing Higher Level courses in Computer Science, Economics, and Mathematics. With a strong interest in leadership, policy, and global affairs, Varun has actively contributed to initiatives both within and outside school. He’s heavily involved in community development, often engaging in initiatives to make a social impact. Passionate about problem-solving and diplomacy, Varun brings a blend of strategic thinking and collaboration to every committee. As the Vice Chair for DISEC at Chirec JMUN, he's excited to collaborate with the delegates to make this an unforgettable experience.

Vivaan Bhushan: Rapporteur

Vivaan Bhushan, an avid debater with a love for public speaking, demonstrates a rigorous pursuit of knowledge and a deep dedication to intellectual discourse. Over the years, he has explored a wide range of experiences through MUNs, spanning over 15 conferences, as well as leadership roles, each shaping his perspective and voice. Outside these pursuits, he enjoys reading, creative writing, and playing the guitar. With a strong interest in science and mathematics, he constantly seeks to connect logic, creativity, and curiosity in everything he does, and he looks forward to the upcoming conference!

UNHRC:

Sarayu K: Chairperson

Sarayu's a student at Silver Oaks pursuing Humanities, and has been a part of the circuit for over 2 years. You can find her reading, or struggling to find eggless brownie recipes in her free time. She's looking forward to CHIREC JMUN'25, and hopes to make this experience memorable for everyone in UNHRC!

Yashraj Sai Patnaik: Vice – Chairperson

Yashraj is a DP1 student at Chirec, pursuing Global Politics, Math, and Economics at higher levels. A confident speaker, he has a deep passion for debate and thrives at MUNs, having attended 10+ conferences in various capacities. When he's not searching for articles on an obscure conflict or spewing economic jargon, you can find him dedicating extensive time and effort to understanding astrophysics, playing the drums, or listening to metal music. He looks forward to a fruitful debate at the conference and extends his best wishes to all delegates.

Anvit Katturi: Rapporteur

Anvit Katturi is an IBDP year 1 student at Chirec International School, taking maths, physics and chemistry at higher level. You'll either find him playing tennis or bingeing movies and shows. He has participated in multiple MUNs as a delegate and enjoys conversations on current global politics. He is looking forward to his first time as a rapporteur at this Chirec JMUN.

CCPCJ:

D Sai Srikar: Chairperson

Srikar has been an active participant in Model UN for over three years. He has dedicated countless weekends to learning through MUN, and he looks forward to another exciting weekend where he can share what he's learned!

Ali Qadri: Vice-Chairperson

Ali is a junior at Sancta Maria. He is an avid debater, having done multiple MUNs in the Hyderabad circuit.

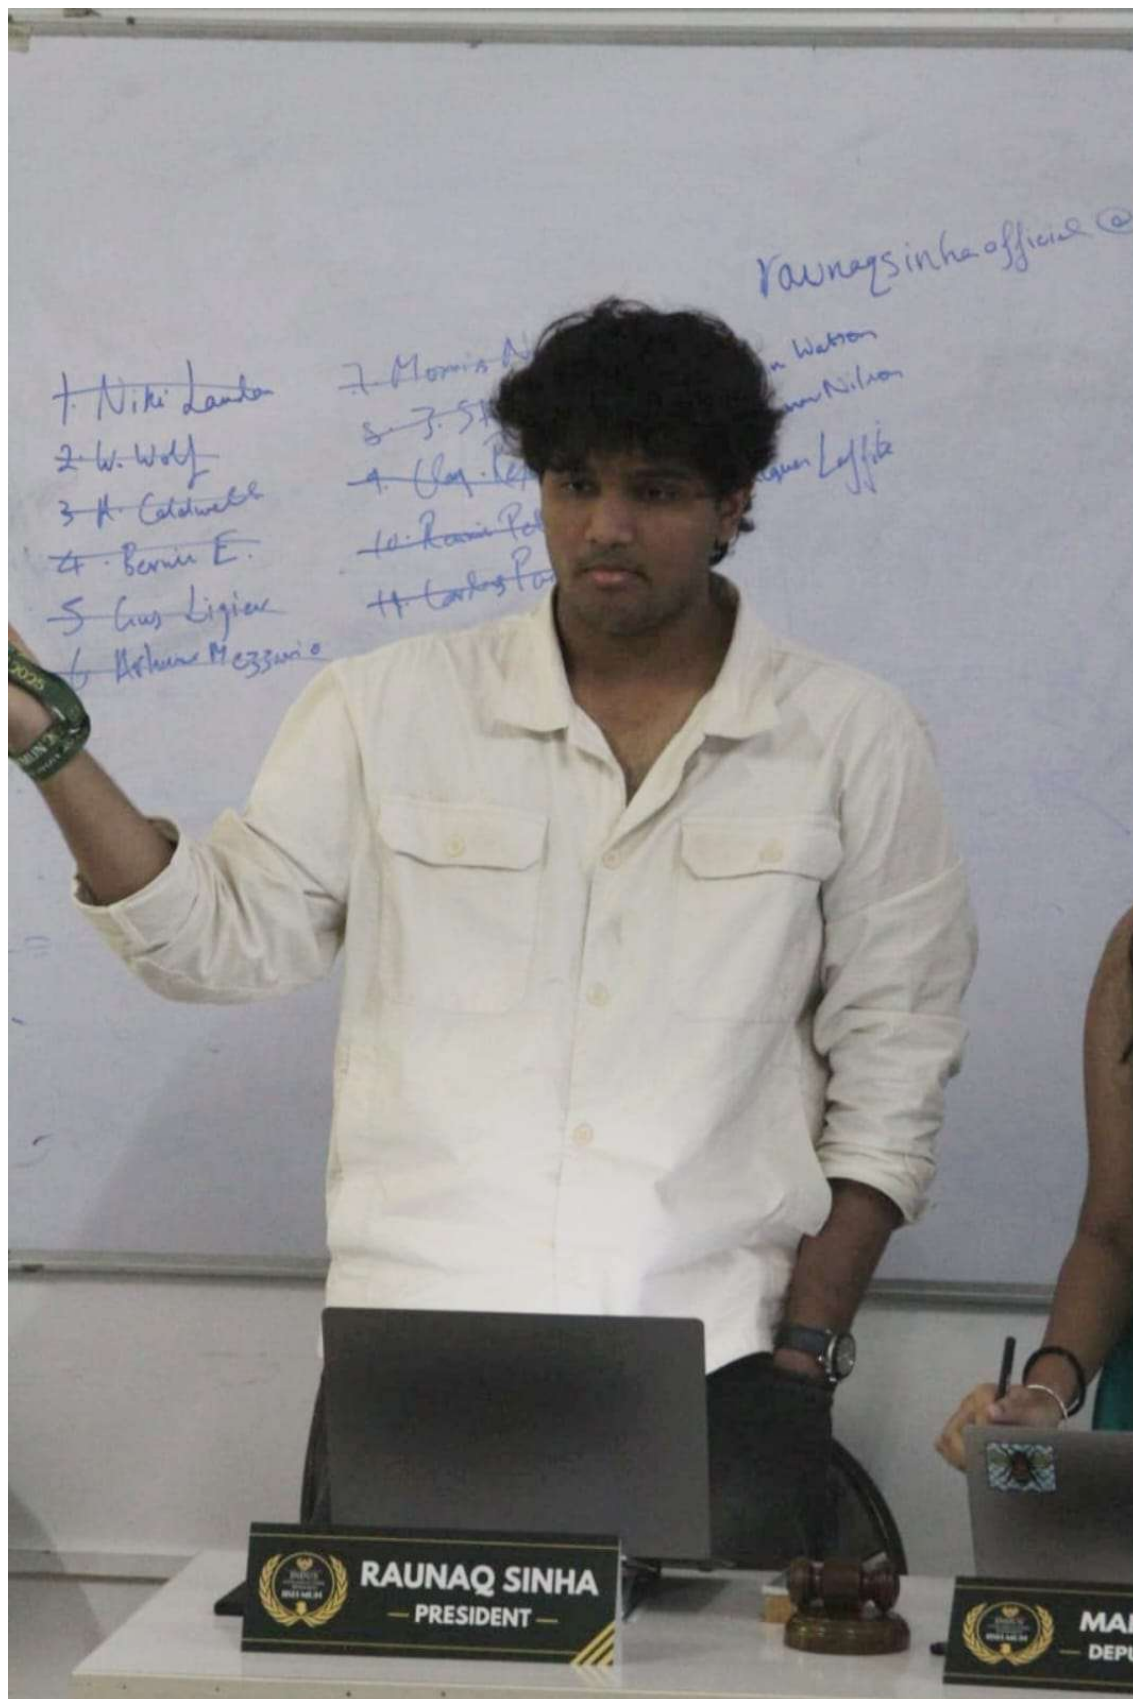

When he is not debating, you can find him playing or watching football. Ali believes the most important part of a conference is to learn and gain new experiences.

He is very excited to be your chair, and hopes to see you at Chirec.

IAEA:

Raunaq Sinha: Chairperson

a natural competitor and a person with a passion for unique committees bring him onto the EB for IAEA at Chirec JMUN 2025.

Currently in his first year at O.P Jindal Global University, pursuing BSc. Economics Hons. and holding an International Advanced Diploma in Artificial Intelligence, he aims to break into the world of quantitative finance and re-shape the financial structures of the world.

Raunaq is a tried and tested leader, whether in his capacity as Delegate or as a member of the Executive Board.

A Racing Driver by profession, he knows what decisions are to be made in the heat of the moment; making him invaluable in any professional setting.

Raunaq wishes you the best of luck and looks forward to seeing you at Chirec JMUN 2025.

"May the odds be ever in your favour."

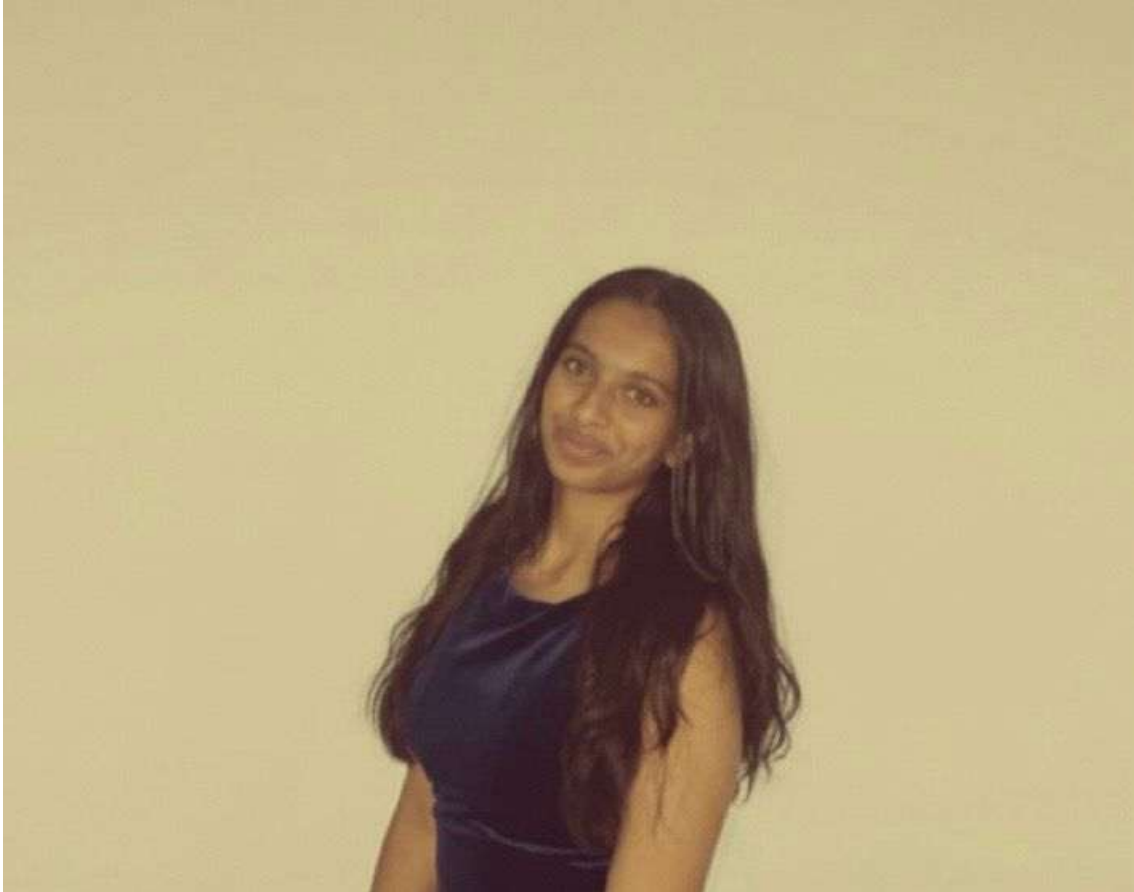

Naisha Singhee: Vice-Chairperson

Naisha Singhee is a Grade 11 CBSE student at CHIREC, studying Sociology and Economics.

As an aspiring lawyer, she has a deep interest in politics, media, and justice. When she's not at a conference, she's either at the tennis court or overanalysing a film she's already seen five times. She looks forward to sharing her knowledge, and passion for debate, with the delegates of IAEA!

Srinika Reddy: Rapporteur

Srinika Reddy is a Grade 9 student at CHIREC who is both enthusiastic and creative in everything she takes on. She's a total people person - she loves working in teams, meeting new people, and building meaningful connections.

When she's not perfecting her dance routines, taking part in a debate competition, or volunteering for a cause, you'll find her playing badminton, trying out a new restaurant in the city, or baking late at night. Srinika spends her free time rewatching Suits, Gossip Girl, and Modern Family, or making pasta with her friends.

Approachable and open-minded, she loves a good heated debate. Her first-ever JMUN in 2023 was what sparked her passion for public speaking, and she strongly believes that JMUNs are an incredible learning experience. Srinika is beyond excited to help make this year's conference one to remember!

LOK SABHA:

Charan Krishna Tejh: Speaker

Charan Krishna Tejh is a fourth year engineering student currently pursuing his education at CBIT. With several years of experience participating in Model United Nations conferences across various Indian and international committees, he has earned the reputation of being a flexible delegate well-known for his impactful speeches and exceptional lobbying skills.

Beyond MUNs, Charan is an avid listener of pop music and a passionate Formula 1 enthusiast who never misses a race weekend. He also enjoys binge-watching National Geographic documentaries.

Charan currently serves as a research analyst at GEOSTRATA, a prominent think tank that works closely with the Ministry of External Affairs. An aspiring diplomat, he firmly believes that diplomacy is the natural partner of defense. His intellectual interests span politics, history, and mythology, often finding expression in spirited debates and thoughtful discussions.

Aashi Poogalia: Deputy Speaker

Aashi Poogalia is an A-Level student with a strong foundation in diplomacy, public speaking, and negotiation. Having participated in over 25 conferences, she brings a depth of experience, fostering collaboration, and guiding discussions toward constructive resolutions. An aspiring lawyer with a keen interest in international law and global affairs, Aashi approaches every conference with a commitment to meaningful dialogue and practical solutions. She looks forward to engaging with the delegates and have a fruitful conference.

Hayagreev Devanathan: Scribe

Hayagreev Devanathan, better known as “Nirmala Sitharaman”, is a Grade 11 student at CHIREC who approaches every discussion with clarity, rigour, and a keen sense of purpose. With experience across both the Hyderabad and Delhi NCR MUN circuits and as a parliamentary debater, he values precision in argument and perspective in policy.

He believes that meaningful debate lies not in theatrics but in substance; in ideas grounded in logic, research, and relevance. His interests lie at the crossroads of law, governance, and constitutional reasoning, where he finds the essence of policymaking most vibrant. Outside committee, Hayagreev enjoys engaging with legal commentary and exploring diverse viewpoints on contemporary issues.

He is delighted to be part of CHIREC JMUN this year and looks forward to a weekend of spirited debate and learning, along with lots of fun!

IP

Anirudh Thota: Head Of IP

Anirudh, a grade 12 MBIPC student at Vista International, is profoundly devoted to three things: music, Math, and research. When he's not working on his next patent or drafting his next research paper, he finds solace in music, listening to anything from David Bowie to Frank Ocean. MUNs are his escape when he wants a break from life. He enjoys his free time binge-watching shows and programming. He'd love to catch up with you about politics, movies, video games, or anything in between. He's also pretty sure he could discover the meaning of life if he could just stop doom-scrolling.

He is really excited to be your EIC and hopes to provide an impeccable experience to every journalist.

Meghna Daka: Director Of Photography

Meghna is a junior at CHIREC International and an aspiring blockchain developer taking Math AA, Physics, and Computer Science at a higher level in IB. Usually seen darting across campus with her camera for The Erudite, she has become the go-to person for documenting school life in its most candid and dynamic form. When she's not framing the perfect shot, she can be found spamming Suki Waterhouse or deep in conversation with friends about everything from her latest dystopian watch to the lunch menu (usually the latter). As the Director of Photography for this edition of the JMUN, she's here to make sure no moment goes uncaptured.
